

was referred a bill to incorporate the Florence and Pulaski Turnpike Company, reported the bill back with amendments, and recommended its passage.

The amendments were adopted and the bill placed among the orders of the day.

Message from the House of Representatives, by Mr Samuel.

Mr. President—The House of Representatives concurs in the resolution adopted by the Senate, appointing a joint committee of the two Houses to allot the different rooms of the Capitol to the officers and committees of the two Houses, and have appointed Messrs Brantley, Roby and Glover, said committee on the part of the House

The House of Representatives have originated and passed bills of the following titles, in which they ask the concurrence of the Senate.

A bill to incorporate the Mobile and Ohio Rail Road Company, and

A bill for the relief of Eliza N. Randall.

Mr Judge from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill authorizing proceedings in Chancery in certain cases, reported that it would be inexpedient to pass said bill.

Mr Martin from the committee on Federal Relations, to whom was referred a Pamphlet entitled amongst other things, "a new mode of Government," reported that without reference to the high estimation (as individuals) we may entertain for the political opinions of any American citizens, yet, in regard to the matter contained in the pamphlet in question, the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, believe it unworthy of their consideration, and that no further action should be had on the subject.

The report was concurred in.

Mr Frazier from the committee on Military Affairs, to whom was referred a bill to change in part the military law of this State, reported the same back with an amendment, and recommended its passage

The amendment was adopted, and the bill placed among the orders of the day.

Mr Davis moved to suspend the regular orders in order to take up the bill to incorporate the Tennessee Valley Rail Road Company which was lost.

Mr Stewart from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill to repeal in part and alter and amend an act therein named, reported the same back without amendment and recommended its passage.

The bill was placed among the orders of the day.

Mr Dent introduced a bill to authorize Frederick P. Hall to sell a certain slave, the property of his ward which was read, and Mr Dent moved to suspend the constitutional rule in order to give the bill a 2d reading forthwith which was lost.

The bill was then ordered to a second reading on to morrow.

Mr Manning introduced a bill to attach Choctaw county to the 3rd Chancery District, which was read and the rule requiring bills and resolutions to be read on three several days was suspended and the bill